The order of command of the full-time, appointed police officer positions within the police department of the Village shall be as follows: chief of police, deputy chief of police, police lieutenant (which position, without any additional compensation, may also be referred to as a "deputy chief of police"), police sergeant, police patrol officer.

b. The position of Chief of Police shall be appointed by the president of the Village, by and with the consent of the board of trustees. The chief of police need not be appointed from among those appointed police officers of the police department, and need not be a resident of the village at the time of appointment.

c. The position of deputy chief of police, which shall be a rank immediately below that of chief of police, shall be exempt from the jurisdiction of the board of fire and police commissioners, shall be appointed from among the full-time police lieutenants then employed by the Village, and such appointment shall be made in accordance with article III of chapter 24 of this Code. Any police lieutenant appointed to the position of deputy chief of police shall serve at the discretion of the chief of police, and if removed from such position by the chief of police, shall revert to the rank of police lieutenant.

d. The position of police lieutenant, which shall be a rank immediately below that of deputy chief of police, shall be exempt from the jurisdiction of the board of fire and police commissioners, shall be appointed from among the full-time, police sergeants then employed by the village and such appointment shall be made in accordance with article III of chapter 24 of this Code.

All other sub-sections of Section 18-21 shall be renumbered accordingly.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Approve the Ordinance to Amend Article II – Police Department, Chapter 18, Section 18-21 – Order of Command and Appointments of the Rantoul Code
